INTERVENTION SERVICES

CSA/FAPT/CMPT – Services for At Risk Youth

The Comprehensive Services Act is a system of services and funding addressing the strengths and needs of at-risk youths and their families. Local FAPT teams decide what services might meet the needs of an individual and/or family. Services can include counseling, respite, mentors, support, educational programs, etc. Parents may self-refer to FAPT or contact school or service case manager for a referral.
